CONSERVATISM RUN MAD.

The Louisville Journal, commenting upon the result of the elections, howls after this fashion:

"The Radicals, in the next (Congress) as in the present, will almost certainly have a two-thirds majority and thus possess the numerical power, as they now do, to enact whatever laws they please in defiance of the President's vetoes. And what amount of woe may not this reckless, unscrupulous, remorseless, and infuriated party, waxing all the while in hate and wrath and vengeance, and holding full and irresponsible power in their horrid hands, achieve during the approaching Congressional session and the two that are to follow! Eyes and hearts may well ache at the appalling prospect! Bad has come, and "worse is behind."

That's the way the leading men of the old slave aristocracy talk, when rebels are invited to come back and share with the victors in the late war, on perfectly equal terms, all the blessings of this good government, excluding only perjured rebels. The sacrifice of not a single life, nor a dollars worth of property is asked. The door stands wide open, and they can come in as soon as they please and abide in peace; and yet the men who are thus generous and forgiving are denounced as a "reckless, unscrupulous, remorseless and infuriated party, waxing all the while in hate and wrath and vengeance." Surely the man who talks thus is more fit to be a tenant of a mad house than a leader of public opinion.

THE Commercial takes occasion to thank its numerous correspondents for enabling it to get out as full returns of the elections as its contemporaries. We also beg leave to tender our sincere thanks to our attentive special correspondents in every section of Pennsylvania; to the officers of the Associate press and the telegraph operators; to the mail agents and country editors who aided us so materially in getting out the first and most complete election returns. Our distinguished thanks are also due the attentive specials we have in Maine, Connecticut and Vermont, who generously favored us with early returns of the elections held in those States. To our specials at Athens, Cincinnati, Columbus, Piqua, Springfield, Batavia, Xenia, Dayton, Portsmouth and Cleveland, in Ohio; at Indianapolis, Fredonia, Logansport, Warsaw, Plymouth, Martinsville, Evansville, and Corydon, in Indiana; at Des Moines, Fortanelle, Sioux City, Osceola, Dubuque, and Emmetsburg, in Iowa, we feel under deep obligations for early returns of the recent elections. We are also under obligations to our special correspondents located at Moscow, Berlin, Constantinople, Paris and London, for furnishing us with important telegrams daily, detailing the events transpiring across the water. We are indebted to all those good fellows, but we are not obligated to HON. EDGAR A. COWAN's pen ury for our position in the ranks of the Union Republican party.

CHICAGO.—The cholera appears to be abating in Chicago. There has been no panic or serious alarm in consequence of its prevalence.

The great tunnel under the lake is progressing at the rate of twenty-seven lineal feet per diem. Only five hundred and forty feet remain to be excavated.

THE latest returns from Iowa make it plain that above and beyond having elected a whole Radical delegation to Congress, the majority of the State has increased considerably.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Presidential Appointments—Bounty Regulations Arrest of Thieves—The Recent Storm.

WASHINGTON, October 13.—The commissions of the following officers, heretofore appointed and announced, were signed by the President to-day:

Billings C. Whiting, Superintendent of Indian affairs for the district of California; Achelles Scotterday, postmaster at Gallipolis, and Jacob R. Hubbard, postmaster at Dayton, Ohio.

In the regulations promulgated from the War Department regarding the payment of bounties under the act of July 28, 1866, it is prescribed that soldiers enlisted for three years or during the war who were discharged by reason of the termination of the war, shall be considered as having served out the period of their enlistment, and are entitled to bounty under the act, the subject having been under the consideration of the accounting officer and the Paymaster General.

The second comptroller of the Treasury is of the opinion that the twentieth day of August, 1866, the date of the President's proclamation declaring the rebellion to be at an end, should be taken as the date of the termination of the war within the meaning of the rule referred to, as enlistments under the act of July 22d, 1861, ceased on the 18th of July, 1864. No soldier enlisted under that act could have been discharged on account of the termination of the war before serving two years.

Asbury Thompson, who was arrested yesterday, has been released on the charge of having stolen at various times articles of clothing and small stores from the inspection building at the Navy Yard in this city. Some of the property has been recovered—a portion of them at the residence of the prisoner. The entire amount of the larceny is between two and fifteen hundred dollars, including one thousand dollars' worth of silk handkerchiefs. The accused was held to appear at Court in default of ten thousand dollars' bail.

The rain ceased about noon but the Potomac has been rising rapidly all day, and the indications are that the water will be as high in the destructive flood of former years. The canal has overflowed, and many of the houses along the northern bank are submerged. Many inmates of some of the ranckees in the neighbornood, were obliged to leave their tenements on rafts piloted by newsboys. The water in the canal attained its greatest height about 4 o'clock this afternoon, when it reached within a few inches of the top of the fence, at the south-east corner of the white lot, south of the Presidents, and covered a portion of the grounds used by the base ball clubs, east of this lot for some distance. The water was full of men and women, who had come here for fun, was all deep, and bringing out furniture and clothes.

Gov. Wells to Issue a Proclamation—Mexican Advices.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 13.—It is rumored and credited that Gov. Wells has secretly issued or is about publicly issuing, a proclamation removing all the Sheriffs elected last Spring and appointing others in their places.

The latest from the Rio Grande to the 4th states that Henajosia made another abortive attempt to take Matamoras from Canalis, but failed. There was one report that Cortinas had gone to Monterey to help Escabodo and Treviño, and defend that city against Mejia and the Imperialists, who were approaching with 5,000 to 12,000 men, and another that Cortinas was about attacking Carroles in Matamoras, and that Trevino was on the way from Monterey with a like purpose.

Railroad Consolidation.

RICHMOND, VA., October 13.—The Virginia and Tennessee Railroad Company, in session at Lynchburg, Va., adopted a resolution yesterday in favor of consolidating the management of the railroads from Bristol, Tennessee, to Norfolk, Virginia. Governor Pierpont and General Mahone were the most prominent advocates of the scheme of consolidation.

RICHMOND, VA., October 13.—Private dispatches from Lynchburg, say that the railroad consolidation scheme, instead of being approved as announced this morning, was rejected by 116 majority.

Election Returns.

PHILADELPHIA, October 13.—We have the following official majorities: Blair county, Geary 722; Cambria county, Clymer 652; Mifflin county, Clymer 110; Greene county, Clymer 153; Westmoreland county, Geary 3,040, Clymer 2,137; Huntingdon county, Clymer 2,198 majority.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 14.—Official returns from Perry county gives Geary 2,581, and Clymer 2,496; Northumberland county gives Clymer 498 majority; Centre county gives Clymer 61 majority; Monroe county gives Clymer 1,091 majority.

Special Powers to the New York Board of Health.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Governor Fenton has extended special powers to the Metropolitan Board of Health from this date to the 1st day of October to be last day of December, the board having by resolution declared that peril to public health still exists in certain particulars. Street Commissioner Chas. G. Carnell has published a card in which he says he will refute the charges against him of the Citizens Association.

Floods in Virginia.

RICHMOND, October 13.—The floods, and the serious damage done to the railroads, will cause a suspension of travel between this city and Washington for two or three days. On the Richmond and Fredericksburg road three culverts were washed away, and on the Orange and Alexandria road the bridge at Beaton Run was washed off. The James river is much swollen by the recent rains.

The London Times commends Secretary Seward on his speech at the cable banquet in Liverpool, which was, it says, designed to satisfy the United States that our relations with that country are on the most friendly footing, and suggests that his bonhomie should take in hand the difference relating to the Alabama claims, which, intractable as they may seem, by persuading would be a test if they necessary paper and judgment be brought to bear upon them.

The Times further suggests that England should offer to submit her neutrality laws, together with those of the United States, to revision by a mixed commission; also, that the time has arrived when the consuls-ship question and Alabama claims is no longer open to misconstruction and would be accepted by the United States as a spontaneous act of good will.

Another Fenian Scare in Canada.

NEW YORK, October 14.—The Herald's Toronto special says: Great excitement was caused here to-day by the circulation of a rumor that an organized party of Buffalo roughs contemplated a raid into this city. A strong squad of police was immediately detached to patrol the river between Buffalo and Niagara Falls. A company of volunteers patrolled the river in the vicinity of Fort Erie, and other precautions were taken, but the raiders failed to put in an appearance.

But few men readily understand that so soon as he goes into the hands of that officer upon any action had by me, his place of confinement would be one of the State Jails or Penitentiaries. At Fortress Monroe all necessary preceeding can be and are taken to prevent his escape. Over the person and custody of the State jail the National has no authority and the custody of the prisoner could not be secured save at a great expense. Mr. Davis is now in as comfortable quarters as the most of those occupy by the army officers at the Fort. The location is a healthy one. His family have free access to him. He has the opportunity for exercise in the open air if his health be feeble; remove him to one of the State jails and his condition, instead of being better, would, in all probability be worse. You will understand probably understand all this, and I think will not be likely to take any step which would decrease the personal comforts or endanger the safety of the client.

I have the honor &c.,

U. S. District Attorney for Va.

Departure of the Russian Embassador.

WASHINGTON, October 13.—Baron Stoeckel, for many years representative of the Emperor of Russia to this Government, waited on the President yesterday, accompanied by the Secretary of State, to take a formal official leave previous to his departure from this country. The interview was of an interesting character, both from intimate friendly relations of the two governments and the popularity of the retiring Minister himself. The Russian Government will be represented by M. Walgemo Bodisco, who has been attached to the Legation for a number of years. He was in such capacity as Charge d' Affaires, and in the usual appropriate manner.

THE TRIAL OF JEFF. DAVIS.

Correspondence Between the President and Attorney General.

THE TRAITOR'S TREATMENT.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The following official correspondence, relative to the trial of Jeff. Davis, was made public this afternoon:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 6, 1866.

SIR:—A special term of the Circuit Court of the United States was appointed for the first Tuesday of October, 1866, at Richmond, Va., for the trial of Jefferson Davis on the charge of treason. It now appears that there will be no session of the Court during the present month, and doubts are expressed whether the regular term, which by law should commence on the 4th of November next, will be held. In view of this obstruction and the consequent delay in proceeding with the trial of Jeff. Davis, now pending in that Court, and there being, so far as I am informed, no good reason why the Civil Courts of the United States are not competent to exercise adequate jurisdiction within the district or circuit in which the State of Virginia is included, I deem it proper to request your opinion as to what further steps, if any, should be taken by the Executive with a view to a speedy, public and impartial trial of the accused, according to the Constitution and laws of the United States.

I am, sir, very respectfully, yours,

ANDREW JOHNSON.

To Hon. Henry Stansbery, Attorney Gen'l.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE, Oct. 12, 1866.

To the President.—SIR: I have the honor to state my opinion upon the question proposed in your letter of the 6th, as to what further may be proper of expedient to be done by the Executive, in reference to the custody of Mr. Davis and the prosecution for treason now pending against him in the Circuit Court of the United States for Virginia. I am clearly of the opinion that there is nothing in the present condition of Virginia to prevent the full exercise of the jurisdiction of the Civil Courts, or the trial of Jefferson Davis. The several proclamations of peace and of the restoration of civil order guaranty to the civil authorities, Federal and State, the withdrawal of military control or interference, it seems to me that in this particular, that there is no necessity for further action on the part of the Executive and in the case of Jefferson Davis especially, as Congress at the late session, repealed the Circuit Court of the United States to be held at Richmond on the second Monday in May and the fourth Monday of November, in each year, and authorized special or adjourned terms of that Court to be ordered by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, at such time, and on such notice, as he might prescribe, with the same power and jurisdiction as at the regular terms. This is an explicit acquiescence by Congress in the state of things in Virginia admits the holding of the United States Courts in that State. The obstruction you have assumed to remove has been removed by any executive order, so far as I am advised. It arises as follows: Congress on the 22d of May, 1866, passed an act providing that the Circuit Court of the United States for Virginia, should be held at Richmond on the first Monday of May and the fourth Monday of November of each year, further providing that all suits and other proceedings which stand continued to another time and place, should be deemed continued to the place specified by the act. This repeals the special or adjourned session, which was ordered by court to be holden at Richmond in the present month of October, and the regular term will be held in this act. This left the regular term to be holden on the fourth Monday of November, and if there had been no further legislation, no court could sit in April next to take cognizance of the case, unless the jurisdiction had been changed. Admiral Goldsborough's flag was hoisted on the Frolic.

The United States steamer Canandaigua, from Cherbourg and Lisbon, arrived at Gibraltar on the 3d, and proceeded eastward.

The London Times commends Secretary Seward on his speech at the cable banquet in Liverpool, which was, it says, designed to satisfy the United States that our relations with that country are on the most friendly footing, and suggests that his bonhomie should take in hand the difference relating to the Alabama claims, which, intractable as they may seem, by persuading would be a test if they necessary paper and judgment be brought to bear upon them.

The Times further suggests that England should offer to submit her neutrality laws, together with those of the United States, to revision by a mixed commission; also, that the time has arrived when the consuls-ship question and Alabama claims is no longer open to misconstruction and would be accepted by the United States as a spontaneous act of good will.

A company of volunteers patrolled the river in the vicinity of Fort Erie, and other precautions were taken, but the raiders failed to put in an appearance.

Extensive Forgeries in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—A series of extensive forgeries on several of the banks and bankers of this city, to the amount of $50,000, have come to light. Some of the forged checks were deposited in the Hanover Bank by an importer of the name of Eugene Durand, who succeeded in obtaining $20,000. Other checks were drawn in the name of Trevor & Colgate, bankers, of Wall street, one for $7,100 and the other for $3,000, and were cashed against the funds deposited. The North American Bank, and the Merchants and Chemical Banks are among the victims. Thus far it appears only $42,000 have been lost on this forged paper. An alleged accomplice of Durand was arrested yesterday and taken before Justice Dowling, at the Tombs Police Court. A preliminary examination was made in the case, when proceedings were further adjourned until to-morrow, at ten o'clock A. M. Durand, the alleged principal in the affair, is at large.

Case of Street Commissioner Cornell—Cholera—England and the Demands Against Her—Receipts from Internal Revenue—The Regius Appointment.

NEW YORK, October 14.—The charges preferred against Street Commissioner Cornell were officially served on him yesterday, and the Governor has requested his defense to be filed forthwith. He will then act in the matter personally or appoint a commission to take it, and investigate the subject. It is understood that the defendant will ask the latter privilege under the act of last winter.

In this city there were but two new cases of cholera and no deaths reported at the register's office yesterday. On board the Helvetia, now at quarantine, the disease is still prevalent. There have been three new cases of a mild type on Governor's Island since the last report.

The Herald's Washington special says: A number of gentlemen representing claimants for indemnity, from England, waited upon the President, and urged upon him the necessity of taking immediate action.

The delay of the British Government in responding to the just demands of our Government, was freely commented upon, and it is asserted that the President expressed himself favorably inclined to their views. It was suggested that a demand should at once be made for indemnity within thirty days, with a threat that in case it was not complied with, Canada should be seized and held as security for the payment of the claim, the political friends of the President here are generally in favor of such action, as a question of policy they argue that a foreign war would have a tendency to heal the bitterness of feeling between the Radicals and Conservatives.

There is no doubt that the President considers the claim a just one, but declines incurring the expense of a war at present, for several reasons; he is anxious to reduce the taxation and restore the currency as soon as possible to a specie basis, and the pressing calls upon the Executive, in reference to the custody of Mr. Davis and the prosecution for treason now pending against him in the Circuit Court of the United States for Virginia, are clearly of the opinion that there is nothing in the present condition of Virginia to prevent the full exercise of the jurisdiction of the Civil Courts, or the trial of Jefferson Davis. The several proclamations of peace and of the restoration of civil order guaranty to the civil authorities, Federal and State, the withdrawal of military control or interference, it seems to me that in this particular, that there is no necessity for further action on the part of the Executive and in the case of Jefferson Davis especially, as Congress at the late session, repealed the Circuit Court of the United States to be held at Richmond on the second Monday in May and the fourth Monday of November, in each year, and authorized special or adjourned terms of that Court to be ordered by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, at such time, and on such notice, as he might prescribe, with the same power and jurisdiction as at the regular terms. This is an explicit acquiescence by Congress in the state of things in Virginia admits the holding of the United States Courts in that State. The obstruction you have assumed to remove has been removed by any executive order, so far as I am advised. It arises as follows: Congress on the 22d of May, 1866, passed an act providing that the Circuit Court of the United States for Virginia, should be held at Richmond on the first Monday of May and the fourth Monday of November of each year, further providing that all suits and other proceedings which stand continued to another time and place, should be deemed continued to the place specified by the act. This repeals the special or adjourned session, which was ordered by court to be holden at Richmond in the present month of October, and the regular term will be holden on the fourth Monday of November, and if there had been no further legislation, no court could sit in April next to take cognizance of the case, unless the jurisdiction had been changed. The London Times commends Secretary Seward on his speech at the cable banquet in Liverpool, which was, it says, designed to satisfy the United States that our relations with that country are on the most friendly footing, and suggests that his bonhomie should take in hand the difference relating to the Alabama claims, which, intractable as they may seem, by persuading would be a test if they necessary paper and judgment be brought to bear upon them.

The Times further suggests that England should offer to submit her neutrality laws, together with those of the United States, to revision by a mixed commission; also, that the time has arrived when the consuls-ship question and Alabama claims is no longer open to misconstruction and would be accepted by the United States as a spontaneous act of good will.

REPUBLICANS! ALL HAIL!

As the smoke of the contest clears away from the battle-field of Peansylvania, the nature, the incidents, and the results of the conflict stand out sharply defined, for contemplation. The stake struggled for was immense. Never before in our politics were so vast consequences wrapt up in issue. A gigantic conspiracy was entered into between the President and the Democrats to crown the baffled Rebellion with all the substantial fruits of victory. The blandishments of Federal patronage, and the deceitful professions of the Democrats that they had recanted their incivism and were sincerely for the Union, co-operated to beguile loyal men. Moreover, large opportunities existed for the use of patronage here. There were unusual facilities, in the contiguity of Rebel elements on one border and of Copperhead elements on another, for colonizing illegal voters. The Democratic managers resorted to fraudulent naturalization certificates upon an unprecedented scale, and found congenial materials to work upon. The depths of the vilest and most turbulent jealousies and hatreds were stirred by crafty appeals to caste, always and everywhere, in the highest and lowest classes of society, of greater weight than soil lest arguments and the most pungent considerations of justice and humanity.

Besides all this the co-alltionists had collateral advantages in their favor. At the head of their State Committee was a man of fine endowments, singular energy, intimate acquaintance with leading men and predominant influences, and experienced in the particular duties he was called upon to discharge. In all these particulars he was superior to the man at the head of the Republican Committee. In addition to this the Republican State Committee was organized upon about as censurable a basis as it could be. Instead of being composed of a rigidly limited number of individuals, specially fitted for the position, with leisure and zeal for the prosecution of the work, the Committee consisted of a hundred men. A mass meeting is good for some purposes, but it is worth little in the management of a political campaign. Either five members of the Committee would have performed the labor much better than the whole number.

Nevertheless the Republicans are signally victorious. The loyal people took the matter into their own hands, and animated by a fervent patriotism, instituted a discussion of pending questions so searching and vivifying as to clear away all the fogs and uncertainties in which it was intended to envelop them. The hearts of the people were right, and when the path of duty and honor was made plain they entered upon it with a resolution not to be shaken.

Nor must another consideration elude observation. Pennsylvania is situated nearest to Washington of all the great loyal Commonwealths. In case of revolutionary movements there, fomented and patronized by bad men connected with any of the Departments of the governments, she can soonest make her power felt for the maintenance of order and the conservation of justice. With Pennsylvania in the control of the coalitionists, any measures of aggression upon the rights of co-ordinate branches of the government into which the President might be led either by fierce passions or upon premeditation, would be of much easier accomplishment than with the State under the headship of a patriot soldier whose courage has been tested and approved on fifty fields of battle.

In view, therefore, of the deliverance gained and of the signal advantages achieved, we bid our Republican friends, all hail!

SOUTH CAROLINA.

The following law has just been enacted by the Legislature of South Carolina:

AN ACT TO DECLARE THE RIGHTS OF PERSONS LATELY KNOWN AS SLAVES AND AS FREE PERSONS OF COLOR.

Be it enacted, &c., That all persons hitherto known in law in this State as slaves, or as free persons of color, shall have the right to make and enforce contracts, to sue, be sued, to be affiants and give evidence, to inherit, to purchase, lease, sell, hold, convey and assign real and personal property, make wills and testaments, and to have full and equal benefit of the rights of personal security, personal liberty and private property, and of all remedies and proceedings for the enforcement and protection of the same, as white persons now have, and shall not be subjected to any other or different punishment, pain or penalty for the commission of any act or offense, than such as are prescribed for white persons committing like act or offence.

Sec. 2. That all acts and parts of acts specially relating to persons lately slaves and free persons of color, contrary to the provisions of this act, or inconsistent with any of its provisions, be, and the same are, hereby repealed; Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to repeal so much of the eighth section of an act entitled "An act to establish and regulate the domestic relations of persons of color, and to amend the law in relation to paupers and vagrancy, ratified the twenty-third day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty five, as enacts that marriages between a white person and a person of color shall be illegal and void."

This is certainly a very decided step in the right direction, and is tantamount to a ratification of the first section of the constitutional amendment. When nations or States once begin to move in the path of humanity, justice and rectitude they are not likely to turn back; and it would not be at all surprising were South Carolina—which led the South into treason, secession and rebellion—to lead the way back again, by ratifying the constitutional amendment, and accommodating itself in all respects to the new condition which the war has imposed. The leading men of that State are too astute to persist in a hopeless struggle, or to blind themselves to an effete democracy, or to allow a stupid prejudice against a colored cuticle to stand in the way of their political interests; so look out for a thing that will horrify and disgust our copperheads, and set their delicate nerves to vibrating at a fearful rate—for, father than lose three-fifths of their weight in the councils of the nation, they will probably be the first to enfranchise their colored people, and thus make them the equals of white men at the ballot box. They will probably do this; for the above law shows that the tide is setting in that direction. They see now that the only way in which they can get back into the Union is to accept the terms prescribed by Congress—that those terms are just and generous—and that when accepted, the citizen of South Carolina and the citizen of Massachusetts will stand upon precisely the same platform. But they are not such fools as to allow the colored men of Massachusetts to be represented in Congress while theirs are not. To put it in the common lingo of the class in dispute, they will say, "a South Carolina nigger is as good as a Massachusetts nigger any day." To do so will give to that State five representatives in Congress instead of two, which is a consideration weighty enough to overbalance a mountain of prejudice.

THE NEW YORK TIMES ON THE RESULT.

Hon. HENRY J. RAYMOND, the editor of the New York Times, it will be remembered, was one of the originators of the Philadelphia August Convention, one of the most active spirits in it, and the penman of its address or declaration of principles. This fact gives interest to the following article, in which the results of the recent elections are ably and frankly discussed. We submit it without further comment:

THE STATE ELECTIONS.

The results of the late elections show very clearly that the contest has been almost precisely as it was two years ago between the Democratic and the Union parties. The differences between Congress and the President have had no perceptible influence upon the party divisions of the country. Nor has the Philadelphia Convention, strong as was the impression which it made at the outset upon the public mind, produced any marked effect upon political organizations in the several States where elections have been held. On the one side is the old Democratic vote, increased or diminished somewhat here and there by local influences, and on the other is the Union majority, stronger on the whole than ever before, and not at all affected either by the strong appeals made to its judgment and reason, or by the influence and patronage of the General Government brought to bear upon it. It is undoubtedly true that the whole power of the Administration has been thrown against the Republican party; yet that power, great as it always is, has been able to effect absolutely nothing in the general result.

The reason of this is found in the fact that it has been thrown in favor of the Democratic Party, as organized and directed during the war. It has not been used with primary regard to the principles and policy of the Administration itself. The Philadelphia Convention set forth what we believe to be the Administration platform on the subject of Restoration; but that platform was not made the basis of political action of the Administration itself or of any body else. It was simply surrendered to the Democratic Party as a stepping-stone to power. The leaders of that party seized upon it for that use. Their subsequent action proved conclusively that their motives in accepting and endorsing it were partisan—that they sought, not so much the restoration of the Union as the reorganization and reinstatement of their own party. The Philadelphia Convention gave the country a basis of restoration upon the principles settled by the war—and to this the South gave its unanimous, sincere and cordial assent. If the Democrats of the North had accepted it with the same sincere desire for the public good, it would have been endorsed and re-affirmed by the people. But they did nothing of the sort. They took it as part of their own stock in trade. They seized it as the ladder upon which they were to climb back again into the high places from which they had been expelled. Designed as a great national movement, for the attainment of national ends, it became, in their hands, a tool for the attainment of a partisan purpose—for the resumption of official place and party power.

Unfortunately, the friends of the Administration lent themselves to the project. Democratic committees and Democratic candidates repaired to Washington and demanded of the Administration the old of patronage and its influence for their party purposes,—and it was very largely accorded to them. Democrats of Copperhead antecedents were appointed to office,—not universally, perhaps often through inadvertence and lack of information,—but upon the application of Democratic leaders, far more anxious to restore their party to power than to serve the Administration or save the Union. The same men, acting from the same motives, secured Democratic nominations, for State offices and for Congress, wherever they had chances of success, and the whole current of political action ran in the same direction.

The natural effect of all this was to produce upon the public mind the conviction that the aim of the Administration was to restore the Democratic Party to power; and as this conviction grew the political power of the Administration dwindled until it absolutely ceased, as the result shows, to have any perceptible influence upon the elections whatever. There is one thing upon which the people have made up their minds, and neither the President nor any other power can change it, and that is: that the restoration of the Union shall not be intrusted to the men who tried to destroy it by war, nor to those who failed to resist that attempt by all the means in their power. This determination may not be logical, nor constitutional, nor strictly in accordance with the rights of States and sections; but it is instinctive and unconquerable. Once let it be distinctly understood that the Democratic Party is not to be restored to its old ascendancy, and the people will be liberal, just and generous in their adjustment of all political differences; but so long as that point is left in doubt, they will be exacting and intolerant upon all. The late elections show that they intend to have guarantees upon that point first; and nothing is likely to be gained, in any quarter or by any party, by resisting and defying their will.

Education of the Freedmen—Large Meeting in Baltimore—Chief Justice Chase Presides—Speeches of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher and Others.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 12, 1866.

A large meeting of the most respectable citizens in Baltimore was held this evening in the Front Street Theatre under the auspices of the Baltimore Association for the Moral and Educational Improvement of the Colored People. Chief Justice Chase presided, and the proceedings were opened with prayer by Bishop Payne of the African Methodist Episcopal Church. Judge Russell of Boston made an eloquent appeal in favor of educating the colored race. If we give them education, he said, they will defy any treason to trample on their just rights. President Johnson calls upon us for a day of thanksgiving, and no gift will be found more precious than that given to this poorest, weakest, most feeble of God's children.

The Rev. Henry Ward Beecher was the next speaker. He reviewed the progress that had been made in the public sentiment of Baltimore since his last visit here some time since, when the presence of a known Abolitionist was not considered desirable or welcome. The feeling of caste and selfish seclusiveness, he said, has been a marked characteristic of human nature in all past ages, and has been manifested by the Yankee and by the Southerner during the present—but it was and is wrong. No man, said Mr. Beecher, is a follower of Christ who dares not do now as Christ would do if he were now on earth, and as he did do while in humanity's form. The preaching of the Gospel to the poor is one of the plainest and simplest truths of the New Testament. The education of the poor and the ministration to their wants—physical, moral and intellectual—is one of the first duties of the Christian; but he questioned whether Baltimore had yet advanced far enough to make the term "poor" apply to and include the colored race, and hoped if any politician in Maryland had the courage to claim office on the ground that he was the friend of the negro, or that he had benefited or helped to educate him. He predicted that before ten years have passed, all prejudices will have vanished, and those now despised will have become popular. He earnestly appealed to his hearers to rise above this prejudice and enfranchise the black race, dignify them by their own proper name of men, and open the understanding that God gave them. Mr. Beecher was frequently and enthusiastically applauded.

Gen. Howard said that five years would witness the putting down of follies that prevail now in many quarters. He was very hopeful of the future of the Freedmen's Bureau, which was simply serving to save the shock of the colored man's transition from slavery to freedom. They had learned during the war that there was power in the United States Government, and that it was not vested in one department. He was satisfied when the Bureau ceased its operations that the Government would be able to protect the humblest citizen in every part of the country. A voice which had reached him from Maine, Vermont, Pennsylvania and Ohio had told him that the people who secured freedom to the slave intended to maintain it, and that the voice came from those who had been with him on the skirmish line.

Judge Bond pledged the emancipationists of Maryland to advocate the education of those they had made free.

Chief Justice Chase said that the audience had heard enough to think of and profit by. When a young man, he never shrank from his duty to the poor, and he was too old now to shrink from such a responsibility.

The meeting then adjourned.

New Jersey.

The Charter election in Newark, New Jersey, resulted in a Union triumph by 1,162 majority. Every department of the city government is now Republican. This is auspicious of a Union triumph in the Fourth and Fifth Congressional districts.

The prospects in the State of New Jersey were never brighter. The First and Second Congressional districts will elect the Republican candidates as a matter of course. The real contest is in the other parts of the State.

John Davidson, a gentleman well known in this city, is the Republican candidate for Congress in the Third, and is making a vigorous canvass. His competitor, Dr. Shipcaves, has refused to meet him, and so Mr. Davidson is going through the district by himself, and is determined to be elected, if effort can secure that end. Mr. John Y. Foster and other effective speakers are also at work in the same district.

The two remaining districts the Republicans are very sanguine of carrying. New Jersey having followed in the footsteps of Tennessee and ratified the Constitutional Amendment, appears to be taking the next step to secure admission of her representatives into Congress, by electing loyal men who can take the test oath without committing perjury.

The following are the candidates for Congress:

Dist.	Union.	Democrats.
1.	William Moore,
2.	William A. Newell,	Charles Haight,
3.	John Davidson,	Charles Sitgreaves,
4.	John Moll,	Andrew J. Rogers,
5.	George A. Halsey,	Robert Gilchrist.

AN ANGRY FATHER STRUCK DEAD.—The Sherbrooke (Canada) Gazette says that last week Lawrence Doyle, who had been drinking, got very angry with his son, and his excitement was such that he burst some of the blood vessels of the heart and dropped dead in an instant. Only a short time before his death he said he did not care for God, man or the devil, and told his wife that she might prepare a coffin for his son or for himself before night. When under the influence of liquor his passion was uncontrollable.

J. B. CAPEWELL,
WIND-GUARD AND AIR-HEATER FOR COAL OIL LAMPS.
PATENTED OCTOBER 2ND, 1866.

The merits of this INVENTION consist in its protection to lamp chimneys, which are continually breaking while being used with the ordinary lamps, and in its ability to heat to boiling point each of the chimneys of the lamps can be carried without safety and without apprehension, in the most extreme circumstances, and the fertile source of loss of oil consumed, rendered in a most remarkable degree preventible. Sold by the inventor, and by all dealers in Lamps and Chimneys.

Offices, Nos. 20 and 22 Penn street, Pittsburgh, Pa. Also, Nos. 20 and 22 Penn street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Pittsburgh and Philadelphia Passenger Cars run to the Eleventh and Twenty-fourth street depots.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON FIRST PAGE.)

Death of a Prominent Lawyer—Meeting of the Bar.

There was a meeting of the members of the Bar of Allegheny county convened in the Court of Quarter Sessions room on Saturday morning, to take suitable action in reference to the death of M. I. Stewart, Esq., which occurred in Philadelphia on Wednesday last.

The meeting was called to order by B. F. Lucas, Esq., and upon his motion, Thomas M'Marshall, Esq., was called to the chair. The organization was completed by the appointment of Albert G. Lucas and James Evans, Esqs., as Secretaries.

The Chairman then stated the object for which the meeting had been called, after which, on motion of Hon. J. M. Kirkpatrick, a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. J. M. Kirkpatrick, F. B. Collier and B. F. Lucas, was appointed to prepare resolutions for the action of the meeting.

The Committee then retired, and on their return the Chairman, J. M. Kirkpatrick, Esq., submitted the following

PREAMBLE AND RESOLUTIONS.

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove from our midst our friend and brother, Matthew I. Stewart, Esq.;

AND WHEREAS, We cannot allow this sad dispensation of Providence to pass without expressing our sorrow and regret on account of the same; therefore,

Resolved, That the Bar of Pittsburgh has learned with unfeigned sorrow of the death of one of its most eminent and highly esteemed members, Matthew I. Stewart, Esq.

Resolved, That in the death of Mr. Stewart our Bar has lost one of its members, whose word was his bond, and on all of whose professional assertion and suggestions they could most implicitly rely, and whose example in this regard we commend as worthy of all emulation.

Resolved, That in his death his family has lost a kind brother and affectionate son, whose loss we know it is impossible to replace, and in this sad hour of their bereavement they have our sincerest and most heartfelt sympathy.

Resolved, That as a token of respect to the memory of our deceased brother, we will attend his funeral in a body.

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed by the chair, to transmit a copy of these resolutions to the family of the deceased brother, and to express to them the sorrow of his professional brethern at his untimely death.

Pending the adoption of the resolutions, feeling tributes to the memory of the deceased were delivered by Hon. S. A. Purviance, J. H. Miller, Esq., Hon. Thomas Mellon, Major A. M. Brown, Gen. F. H. Collier, B. F. Lucas, Esq., Hon. J. M. Kirkpatrick, and Thomas M. Marshall, Esq.

The resolutions were then unanimously adopted, after which the meeting adjourned.

The funeral will take place this afternoon from the late residence of the deceased, No. 65 River avenue, Allegheny City.

Erin vs. Scotia.

A high spirited Celt named Michael Beafy appeared before Alderman Humbert, on Saturday, and made oath against an individual hailing from the "banks and braes of the North countrie," who rejoiced in the ancient title of Solomon Burnie, who, the prosecutor alleges, imbibed so freely of strong potations on Friday night, as to render his condition anything but sober. The consequence was, he threatened to murder all the fellow countrymen of Michael, manufacturing the unpleasantry slaying the latter. This aroused all the latent indignation in the breast of the Irishman, and to use his own words "he gave the foul scoundrel a bit of his own mind." Instead of silencing Solomon it had the opposite effect, and he finally deserted his vocal weapon and knocked Michael down, and before a good mahogany defence Burnie grasped him by the hair and dragged him into a pool of stagnant water to the injury not only of his person but the eternal ruin of his clothing. Determined on redress Michael had a warrant sued out for Solomon on a charge of aggravated assault and battery. The parties are residents of the borough of East Birmingham, where the fracas occurred.

Sentenced.

On Saturday morning in the Criminal Court, a full bench being present, John Loope was arraigned for sentence. Loope was convicted some two or three weeks since on an indictment for assault and battery with intent to kill. The defendant, it will be remembered, got into a quarrel with Eliza B. Sharpnack, at Mansfield, in Union township, on the second day of July last, during which he drew a pistol and fired. The ball took effect in Sharpnack's back, inflicting a very severe, and it was feared, fatal wound. Fortunately, however, the wound was not so serious as was at first supposed, and the injured man has now almost entirely recovered from the effects of it. When the prisoner was called up Saturday morning, C. McAuliff, Esq., counsel for defense, asked leave to introduce several witnesses, which was granted. They testified in regard to the previous good character for peace, industry and sobriety of the defendant. In consideration of this testimony the Court remarked that the lightest penalty under the law would be imposed. The prisoner was then sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution, and to undergo an imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary for one year.

Youthful Vagrants.

Two Italian lads, whose diminutive form and childish faces, indicated their ages to be between ten and twelve, were arrested in the streets late on Saturday night, and lodged in the tombs, charged with being vagrants. The tallest of the two had on his back a harp, whose defaced and chipped frame told of rough service through which it had passed, while the other carried an old black violin, which look as it might have been that on which Nero played on as Rome sunk to ashes. They had came from New York, and had carried their food while on the way, traveling from town to town, by piving their vocation as minstrels. It looks very strange to see such forms and faces behind the bars, where the night previous stood the besotted wretch and guilty culprit, and we could not refrain from thinking that there should be other receptacles for such as they, and that the homeless child and crime stained criminal should not be treated so much alike.

Gubernatorial Appointment.

On Saturday morning in the Orphan's Court, G. R. Cochrane, Esq., presented a commission from Governor Curtin, appointing Joseph H. Gray, Register of this county, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the late incumbent W. J. Richardson, Esq. After the usual formalities had been gone through with, the oath of office was administered by Hon. Moses Aumpton, presiding Judge of the District Court, and Mr. Gray was at once installed into his office, which he holds for the unexpired term of his predecessor, as well as the following, as he was elected on Tuesday last by the Union Republicans.

Mr. Gray is a courteous affable gentleman, and all who have business to transact with him will have nothing but the most pleasant of—elegance.

Wagon Factory.

We are glad to observe that the extensive shops of the late Frederick Aeschliman, in the Borough of Manchester heretofore celebrated for the quantity and quality of the work turned out, is to be re-occupied and the business prosecuted more vigorously than before by the new proprietors, Harper, Gottman & Co. Thomas Harper and Aeschelman, of this firm, are thoroughly skilled in the mechanical department, and Mr. Gutman, by his knowledge of on-lines and extensive acquaintance, will not fail to advance the high reputation of the work from this Factory, and will also recover and extend the large trade heretofore enjoyed with the South and West as well as at home. See advertisement.

Mont Blanc Foundry.

We bespeak attention to an advertisement of this establishment, elsewhere in this paper.

The proprietors, Messrs. Ebbert & Mackintd, have had many years experience as moulders and foremen in one of the oldest and best foundries in the city. They have erected a foundry on Butler street, in the Ninth ward, near the "Union Mills." They give personal oversight to all their casting of metals and casting, being qualified by their large experience to select for every special purpose, the quality of iron exactly adapted to it.

They are determined to deserve public confidence and patronage, and we doubt not it will be liberally extended to them. Enterprise and skill like theirs never fails of ultimate reward.

Charged with Larceny—Annie James was before Alderman Taylor, on Saturday, charged with the larceny of $25 from a private drawer in the residence of Samuel Brown, in Wilkinsburg township. The accused was employed as a domestic in Mr. Brown's family at the time the money was taken, and suspicion being directed to her from the fact that she left his employment the day after the robbery, she was closely watched until Friday evening, when she offered one of the notes, which had a peculiar mark on it, at a grocery store in Wilkinsburg. She gave bail for a hearing on Wednesday next.

An Erratic Wife.—Hiram Jones came to the office of Alderman Taylor on Saturday and made oath against his wife, Margaret, for surety of the peace. The prosecutor states that his help meet is in the habit of drinking certain strong beverages to excess, and in her moments of intoxication, she threatened to burn the tenement they jointly occupy, and do personal violence to his deponent. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the wayward Margaret.

Fornication.—William Vaughn appeared before Alderman Morrow on Saturday and made oath against his daughter, Mary Ann Vaughn, for fornication. This is the third charge of a similar character that he has brought against the same party within two weeks. He accuses her of cohabiting with a certain John Hennessy, who is a married man, his wife being now in Ireland. The defendant entered bail for a hearing.

Afraid.—Mary Annabel Christy—a colored lady—came to the office of Alderman Lynch, Saturday, and declared on oath duly administered, said she was afraid an unbleached African named Noah Kuhn would do her great bodily harm. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the individual who had inspired the nenatly courageous feminine with fear for her safety.

Malicious Mischief—Patrick Martin was before Alderman Taylor Saturday to answer a charge of malicious mischief, preferred against him by Margaret Little. He gave bail for his appearance in Court.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing syrup has become so popular that various parties have put out articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mrs. Winslow of the Soothing Syrup is not connected with any other article.

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FROM NEW YORK.

Fire in New York—The Case of Jeff Davis—Weather Bound—Losses by the Recent Storms—Accidentally Drowned.

NEW YORK, October 24.—A fire broke out at about half-past nine o'clock last night, in the hobby horse manufactory of A. Christian & Son, No 89 Morgan street. The building, with the stock and a quantity of valuable machinery, was totally destroyed. Loss, about fourteen thousand dollars. Amount of insurance not ascertained.

A Times Washington special says: The decision of the Cabinet on the case of Jeff Davis will be made public in a day or two.

The steamer Arizona, which started for Aspinwall with California passengers on the 11th, still remains at anchor inside the Hook, weather-bound.

Thus far we have heard of the loss of nineteen vessels and twelve disabled in the storm which has prevailed since October 1st.

W. G. Parkhurst, a well known phonographer, was accidentally drowned at Washington on Wednesday night.

The Southern Loyalists—Address to the People of the United States—The Deputation Dissolved.

NEW YORK, October 13.—A Tribune St. Louis special of yesterday says: The Southern Loyalists prepared an address this morning to the people of the United States, before leaving Springfield. They urge the people to insist, in behalf of the Union loyalists, on still further conditions precedent to the admission of the rebel States than those enumerated in the Constitutional Amendment, because the present State governments of the South are not legal bodies, and therefore cannot legally ratify the amendment. They plead that the people insist that their representatives shall refuse to regard or to declare the present State organizations in the South illegal, and proceed to organize governments based upon the principle of impartial loyal suffrage.

A committee of seven were appointed to keep the the subject before the people until the final decision of the reconstruction question in Congress.

The Committee consists of Colonel Moss, of Missouri, President; Governor Hamilton, of Texas; Bingham, of Alabama; Griffin, of Alabama; Tucker, of Virginia; Eaton, of Tennessee, and Randolph, of Louisiana.

The loyalists' deputation is now dissolved. Every where their ideas for impartial suffrage have been enthusiastically received, even in the supposed strongholds of conservatism. In Indiana and Illinois, and everywhere they have met the most cordial audiences.

By Foreign Files—France Will Not Aid Any Revolutionary Attempts Against Turkey—the Russo-American Alliance.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The Asia's dies contain the following items:

The Marquis de Monstier, the new Minister of Foreign Affairs of France, previous to his departure from Constantinople, informed a deputation of Greeks in the political condition at present existing in Europe would prevent Napoleon from aiding any revolutionary attempts against Turkey.

The St. Petersburg Journal expresses the opinion that the secondary States have reason to feel anxious since the publication of the French Foreign Office Circular. The writer intimates that Russia does not see such a severance of alliance a prospect of new coalitions as are indicated by the French Circular.

A Paris Journal heads an article on the subject of the Russo-American alliance with the words, "Le Sauvetage Russe." It considers and no issue of moment can result from the movement. The financial position and social condition of Russia are treated very severely in a few lines.

The English newspapers comment at some length on the subject of President Johnson's tone, and the constitutional question of his difficulty with Congress.

British Bark Foundered.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The British bark Ambrosine, from Cardiff, Wales, for Vera Cruz, foundered off the coast of Cuba on the 7th inst. The Captain, Second Mate and three of the hands were saved, after passing thirty-six hours on a raft. The following are the names of the lost persons: Thomas Jones, steward; John Neal, second mate; Edward Harvard, Peter McDougall, seamen; James Welch, steward. The remainder of the crew, consisting, in number, are supposed to be lost. Their names are Edward Baldwin, mate; Henry Wide, carpenter; Henry Bright, Edward Lovette, Charles Haven, Edward Walker, Thomas Hellierd, seamen, all of whom sailed in the vessel from Cardiff, except John Clark, who shipped in Vera Cruz. John Neal, second mate, who was saved, also joined the vessel at Vera Cruz.

Southern View of the Recent Elections.

NEW YORK, October 13.—The Times' Washington special of yesterday says:

The Charleston Daily News of this morning concludes an editorial upon the recent elections in the North in the following words: Disagreeable as the prospect may be, we are forced to conclude that without any power in the United States to control the life of events, we are drifting slowly back into the Union on the basis of the Constitutional Amendment, and that we will only cease to occupy our present anomalous position when we are represented in Congress by men who can take the test oath, and when our State's offices are filled by men who have never violated an oath to support the Constitution of the United States previous to the rebellion.

Meeting of Fenians.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Stephens has called a meeting of Fenians at Jones' Wood, on Sunday, 28th inst., when he says "I shall freely tell my countrymen who are and who are not friends of Ireland. I shall also bring public opinion to bear on such parties as still retain any property of the brotherhood or sisterhood. In order that I may fulfill the duty effectively to the cause of both men and women, I am requested to furnish me at their earliest convenience with these parties' names and the nature of the property withheld by them.

The Proposed Trip of the New York Seventh.

NEW YORK, October 13.—The board of officers of the Seventh Regiment, who had under consideration the proposed trip to Paris in 1867, have submitted their report to the members of the organization. They estimate the maximum expense at three hundred thousand dollars, and submit it to the members as to whether they are willing to accept the invitation and assume the pecuniary liabilities rendered necessary by the estimate.

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.

THE FIRM OF JOSHUA RHODES & CO. is this day dissolved by mutual consent. All debts owing to the late firm will be paid to the undersigned, who will continue the business at the old stand, and solicits a continuance of the liberal patronage enjoyed by the late firm.

JOSHUA RHODES,

FINANCE AND TRADE.

SATURDAY, October 13, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day, at the office of Robinson, McClean & Co., were as follows: Gold, 152¾; 1881 bonds, 112½; Five Twenties, old, 113¾; do, new, 110¼; Ten-Forties, 99¼; 7-30s, 106⅛; 2d and 3d issue, 106. Michigan Southern Railroad, 91⅞ (advance ½); Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, 93¼ (advance 1¾); Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railway, 110¾ (advance 1½) Erie, 84½; no change. Western Union Telegraph Company, 64⅝; Chicago & Rock Island, 108¾; (advance ¾); Chicago & North Western, 47¾; do preferred, 75¾.

Governments closed a shade weaker in New York on Friday evening, not from any inherent weakness in United States Bonds, but, for the time being, speculation has turned upon the Railway list. The Stock Exchange is much excited, and the speculation is distributed over the entire list. A continuance of the present easy money market will help the bull party, and we should be but little surprised to see a further advance all round, of from five to ten per cent.

Our home market is steady on Governments which command here at all times within ¼ of rates current in New York. We may report sales of 5s coupons, due November 1st, at 100¾, a high figure, and to our notion, more than they are worth. The present quotations for gold cannot be long maintained against the immense supply of coin in the Government vaults. There is but little doing in City or County Securities. Pittsburgh Fives are worth about 73. Allegheny County Fives are selling in Philadelphia at 75.

Robinson, McClean & Co. are buying Lawrence County Sixes (old issue) at 65; Butler Counties at 75, and Mercer Counties at 80. No late sales of Gas stocks. For Allegheny Gas we have 33 bid; for Birmingham Gas 31¾ bid. Insurance stocks dull—no late sales. Eureka offered at par. Allegheny Valley Railroad shares not so brisk as they were two weeks ago. The stock is not pressed for sale, but we can learn of no bids above 16 per share. Connellsville moves slowly at 100@10½. Pittsburgh & Steubenville in a state of coma for the present—a big law suit is said to be impending, while the stock is intrinsically worth 20 per share, could justice to the stock holders be secured without further expense, the stock will not bring over 5@6 per share.

Bank stocks are very firm, with rare sales. It is difficult work to furnish reliable quotations. We venture upon the following: Allegheny National, 58@59; Citizens' National, 63@64; Exchange 65 bid, 66 asked. M. & M. National, 63 bid, 64 asked. Peoples National, 110 bid—none in the market. Bank of Commerce, 105@107; Tradesmens', 110 asked—no bids reported. Fourth National, 98 bid—par asked. Columbia off quiet—16½ bid, 17 asked —sales made to-day at 16¾, ex-dividend. Sales of Marine at 61 per share; some inquiry for Triumph, but no bids.

—Conversions of the 7-30 notes falling due August, 1867, will continue to be made to the Treasury Department at the rate of about $4,000,000 per week. There are now outstanding about $270,000,000 of this issue of 7-30s. These notes, owing to the labor involved in their examination, can be redeemed by the Department at the average rate of $8,000,000 per week. Parties holding 7-30 notes of the above issue will therefore do well to forward them to the Treasury for conversion into bonds as early as practicable, as in case of the presentation of large quantities near the period of the full maturity of the notes, prompt delivery before the bonds of the conversion can possible be furnished by the Department.

—The suit against the Michigan Southern Road, brought by guaranteed stockholders, has been settled at the request of the plaintiffs who preferred the very reasonable terms offered to all guaranteed stockholders to litigation. The injunction against a dividend upon the common shares of course falls with the suit, and as the $50,000 of bonds held by the company for dividend purposes have been sold, there is now no apparent obstacle against the resumption of dividends in the opinion of parties dealing in the stock.

—The Chicago Tribune of Saturday says:

There was an active demand for money to-day from all quarters, and the market was closer than it has been at any time during the past ten days. The drain of the interior to move the crops continues unabated, and with the large requirements of our grain dealers, some of our banking houses find it difficult to meet all the demands upon them. Deposit lines are declining, and the volume of currency is rapidly diminishing. The discount houses are obliged to pursue a very conservative policy, and paper is closely discriminated. First class customers are accommodated at ten per cent, but favorable rates for buying the preference. In the open market, the rates of interest are firm at 12@15 per cent per month for good, and 1½ @2 per cent rate signatures.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
SATURDAY, October 13, 1866. }

The produce markets have been moderately active during the past day or two, but during the fore part of the week, there was a very light volume of business, the time and attention of the business public being almost completely absorbed in the elections. Flour and Grain continue to meet with a steady demand at very full and advancing prices, while Provisions are dull but unchanged. There is a regular lobbing demand for Groceries at previous rates. In other articles the movements have been rather light, and without material changes in values.

GRAIN—Wheat is firm with a moderate demand but unchanged. No. 1 Spring is quoted at $2,50 to $2,65—sale of 1 car No. 2 at $2,40. Corn is scarce, and holders generally are asking 91 for prime Shelled, on track. Sale of 3 cars Oats at 50—small sales at 53@55. No movement in Rye or Barley. Last sales of the former at $1,10. The latter is wanted, and there is little or none offering.

FLOUR—Is firm, with a continued fair local demand, and prices are well sustained. We continue to quote in a regular way from stores at $12,00 to $12,50 for spring, and $12,75 to $13,50 for Winter Wheat brands. Sale of 100 barrels "Despiance," on track, at $12, and 100 bbls same brand, from store at $12,25, 100 bbls "Bartlett," on track, at $12,15; 60 "Magnolia," from store, at $12½; 100 do "Jenkins Eureka" at $13,50; 50 do—a St. Louis brand—at $13, and 90 bbls "Giesett," "Ford," and "Gossett," at $12½—in lots from store. New Rye Flour is quoted at $7 to $7,25, and old at $6,50.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet and a little dull, but prices remain unchanged at 17 to 17½ for Shoulders; 18½ to 19 for Ribbed Sides; and 20@20½ for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is dull but unchanged; quoted at 19½ to 20. Mess Pork is quoted at $35.

BUTTER—The market is completely glutted with common packed Butter, and even for prime Roll the demand seems to be falling off somewhat. We quote at 30 to 35 for good to prime, and 35 to 38 for choice.

EGGS—Scarce and demand, and fresh packed sell on arrival at 29 to 30.

DRIED FRUIT—Very quiet. Peaches are quoted at 20 for quarters, and 24 to 25 for prime to choice. No demand for Apples, and but very few in market.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in demand at $3. Timothy Seed is dull and cannot be fairly quoted above $2 to $2½. An occasional small sale of Cloverseed at $9.

CHEESE—Is selling at 17 to 18 for Western Reserves, 15 to 16 for Hamburg, and 20 to 22 for Goshen, as to quality.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
SATURDAY, October 13, 1866. }

CRUDE—The market for Crude continues very dull and depressed, and notwithstanding holders are willing to make concessions, buyers do not seem inclined to buy even at a decline. It is true, the receipts continue light, and the prospects for a resumption of navigation are not encouraging, but the supply, notwithstanding it is comparatively limited, is considerably in excess of the present requirements of the trade. We now quote nominally at 18½ in bulk, and barrels at 19@20 for bonded, and we are not in receipt of offers to sell to-day at 18½, without finding buyers. The eastern markets continue dull and weak, and a decline at the wells seems almost inevitable.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil continues very dull and weak, and prices have still further declined. For immediate delivery in Philadelphia, the best offers to-day were 40 to 40½, and there were sales in that city at 40½ to 40¾. There are offers to sell for December delivery at these quotations, but unfortunately there are no buyers—while for October and November, there are buyers, and no sellers. The transactions throughout the week have been very light in the aggregate, and as compared with the early part of the week, prices have declined fully two cents per gallon. The oil is dull and entirely without life, the demand being restricted entirely to meeting the wants of the local trade—there is no foreign demand.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil are reported to-day:

Perry & Mc.....	200	Baxter & Ellison...	400
Ford Wells.....	25	J. P. Logan	525
J. S. Young	125	J. T. Stockdale.....	227

Total.....2907
Receipts for the week.....20,903
Receipts since Jan. 1.....794,538

Cleveland Market.

CLEVELAND, October 12.—The receipts of wheat to-day by Lake are very heavy, 10,000 bushels having arrived, amounting to 15,000 for the week. On Change the market for wheat was very firm; sales 10s bu No. 1 club at $2,60, and 5s No. 1 Chicago at $2,60; 375 bu No. 2 club at $2,50; 1,000 bu spring at $2,40 to $2,45; 500 bu No. 1 mixed at $2,50. Corn steady and unchanged at 66c for No. 1 mixed. Oats steady and unchanged at 46c for No. 1 mixed. Rye and Barley nominal.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Finance and Trade.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Mining shares were generally firm to-day, and better in some instances. Consolidated Gregory was the feature and rose to 17. Bullion consolidated advanced to 5,40 and was in demand. Nye was active, and sold at 51. Atlantic and Pacific sold up to 5,25; the other changes were not important. Express Stocks—Adams Express 1,00. Petroleum stocks—Bergen, C. & Oil, 50; New York and Allegheny, 5,00. Mining Stocks—American Flag, 4,25; Benton, 2,10; Bullion Con., 5,35; Con. Colorado, 36; Columbian G. & S., 1,80; Consolidated Gregory, G, 16,25; Corydon, 6,15; Dorcmeaden, 2,10; Full River, 1,75; Kepp & Buell, 2,27; Lucrons, 3,30; Montauk, 50; Nye Gold, 92; Quarts Hill, 3,60; Smith & Parmice, 14,05.

The increasing speculation in the Stock Exchange naturally creates a little more demand for money, but the supply continues ample at 4 per cent, with some exceptions at 5 per cent. There is nothing likely to disturb the present monetary aspect this side of January. The discount market is without any material change, and prime names still pass at 5@6 per cent. The gold market closed up steady at 153. The fluctuations during the day have been quiet and frequent and attended with considerable activity and animation. The Foreign Exchange market was quiet. There has been a fair business transacted in the government securities to-day, and the market closed firmly. Five-twenty Coupons, 1865, 110¾@110⅝; Ten-forty Coupons, 99¼@99½; July seven-thirties, 106⅝@106¾.

The Stock market continued strong and buoyant to the close of the day, with an active demand for stocks generally. New York Central, Erie to Lake Shore, Rock Island to 108¾; and the balance of the list was very much the same as reported in our third edition. The bull interest is still strongly in the ascendant, and the prospects are favorable to a further rise.

The Commercial's money article says: The stock market opened at a general advance upon the closing quotations of yesterday. The activity centers chiefly on the western shares, and some of the smaller roads grow stronger, especially Toledo and Wabash, Milwaukee and St. Paul, and Alton and Terre Haute. The transactions in Cleveland and Toledo aggregate 5,700 shares at the regular board. Milwaukee and St. Paul advanced 2¼ on the common stock and 2 on the preferred. Government are more active and firmer. Coupon 6 States 10-40's rose ¼ upon the London quotations. Sixty-fives opened at 110¾ and closed at 110¾. The activity in stock speculation has caused a brisker demand for money, and the exceptions at 5 per cent. on call loans are more numerous. The larger firms find no difficulty in borrowing at 4 per cent. on miscellaneous, on collateral, and loans maturing before the next regular settlement, at four per cent. for thirty days. Discounts moderately active, but there are fewer transactions at the lower rates, five per cent being now the minimum for choice names. Foreign exchange nominal, as usual, on Saturday. Prime bankers' sixty days Sterling is held at 109@109½.

The Post's Money article says: The loan market is easy at 4@5 per cent. The discount demand continues to be limited, although receiving a slight accession in consequence of the activity in several departments of general business. Choice bills pass at 4@4½, while four month's paper in some cases is done as low as 7, the current rate being 5@6%. The stock market is active, and quotations are being recklessly advanced by speculative combinations of gambling operators, who seem to be no difficulty in obtaining call loans from banks which have large idle surplus, and from brokers who wish to invite business. Government are active, and quotations are firm. A large inquiry has sprung up for 6s of 1881, of which a large amount sold as high as 110¾, which are more in request, and August issues are wanted at 106¾. The second and third series are firm at 106@106¾; 10-40s are strong at 99¾, and registered bonds of 1881 at 113.

Railroad shares were buoyant, with a vigorous speculative demand, which was not, however, sustained to the close of business, with the exception of purchases made by cliques for the purpose of stimulating the market to an artificial activity. It is said there are very few purchases making. After Board the following were the quotations: New York Central, 118¾; Erie, 85¾; Hudson River, 124¾; Reading, 116¾; Michigan Southern, 90¾; Illinois Central, 127¾ Pittsburgh, 93½; Toledo, 123¾.

Railroad shares are strong with an upward tendency, quotations at the four o'clock Board were: New York Central, 118⅛; Erie, 85⅜; Hudson, 123¾; Reading, 116½; Michigan Central, 117; Michigan Southern, 91¾; Illinois Central, 127; Pittsburgh, 94¾; Northwestern, 47¼; do preferred, 69¾; Toledo, 123; Rock Island, 109¾; Fort Wayne, 111; Ohio & Mississippi certificates, 34¾; Western Union Telegraph, 64¾.

New York Produce Market.

NEW YORK, October 13.—Cotton more active and 1@2c higher; 41@42c for middling uplands. Flour 5@10c lower with moderate export and home trade inquiry; $8,00@9,25 for extra State; $9,80@11,70 for extra round hoop Ohio, and $11,00@13,50 for trade brands, closing quiet. Whiskey firm and in fair demand; bond, 41@42c. Wheat rather more steady; $2,25@2,35 for new Chicago spring; $1,85@2,05 for old do; $2,35 for new No. 1 Racine spring; $2,95 for choice new amber State, $3,17 for new white Canada, and $3,18 for new white Western. Rye a shade firmer; new Western, $1,18; sales 1,500 bus. old do, at $1,11. Barley more active and lower; $1,32 for Canada West, and $1,15@1,20 for State. Receipts of Corn, 75,000 bus; 1c better, with brisk demand, chiefly speculative; sales 176,000 bus. at 73@74c, inferior 94@95c for shipping mixed Western afloat; 95@96c for do, in store; 98c for Western yellow afloat, and 99c for white Western. Oats active and 1c better; 54@55c for Chicago; 56@57c for Milwaukee. Coffee dull. Sugar steady. Petroleum dull; 21@24½ for crude, and 40@42c for refined in bond. Coal quiet and unchanged. Pork heavy and lower; $33,00@33,12½ for new mess, closing at $32,75 for regular; $31,00 for old do, and $29,50@29,75 for prime; also 1,750 bbls, new mess at $33,00 seller, and $25,10 buyer's option, for October, and $25,25 seller for November. Beef quiet and heavy; $12,00@13,50 for new plain mess, and $13,00@23,00 for new extra mess. Dressed Hogs firm at 13¼@13½c for Western. Bacon quiet, short ribbed, 16½. Cut Meats unchanged. Lard very heavy.

Chicago Market.

CHICAGO, October 13.—Flour steady. Wheat steady at $2,12@2,13 for No. 1, and $1,05@1,10 for No. 2. Corn firm and unchanged 1c. sales at 62@64 for No. 1, and 62@64½c for No. 2. Oats firm at 36 for No. 1, and 34@35c for No. 2. Provisions dull. Freights firmer.

New Orleans Market.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 12.—Cotton higher, but irregular; sales 4,500 bales low middling at 28@29c. Receipts, 1,000 bales. Sterling, 60. New York Exchange ¾ discount. Freights to New York, ⅝; Liverpool, ⅝; Havre, ¼.

Milwaukee Market.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 13—Flour quiet and dull. Wheat firm, at $2,10 for No. 1. Corn firm, at 62c for No. 1. Oats firm, at 33c.

Toledo Market.

TOLEDO, Oct. 13.—Flour quiet. Wheat unchanged. Corn 1c better; 76c for No. 1 Mixed. Oats steady at 44c.

Ironton Iron Markets.

In regard to the iron market, at Ironton, (Ohio,) the Register says: Notwithstanding the demand for pig iron is slow, a very good feeling exists among holders. Prices may be quoted at $18@20 for No. 1 foundry, and $16@17 for No. 2 mill. These figures are very firm. $50 being the least that can procure the best quality of foundry. Inquiries for mill iron are quite frequent, and there is a disposition among holders to ask $17. Considerable amount of metal from Pittsburgh has been put on the market this season, but it has been quite brisk during the past week. It is still held at 5c. The number of tons shipped from this place during the month of September last was 555. The mills are running steadily and orders are abundant. The nail mill has again gone into operation, after a few weeks cessation for repairs. The demand for nails is very active. The prices are still $7,50 for 10d.

Baltimore Cattle Market.

BALTIMORE, October 11.—Beef Cattle.—The offerings at the scales during the past week amounted to 1029 head, against 1280 last week. Prices to-day ranged as follows: Sales by weight (Maryland Cattle) $4,75, inferior $5@6, common $6@6,50, good $7@7,75, and prime cattle $8@8,50 per 100 pounds. The market closed with a better feeling than for the last two weeks. About 100 head of cattle failed to reach here on account of high water. Sheep—The supply was moderate, and prices have not changed from last week. Hogs—The supply has been in excess of the demand this week, and this hogs dull of sale; the good qualities sold at 6¼@6½, and inferior at $12,50@13,50 per 100 lbs net.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede rapidly at the point with scant eleven feet in the channel by the marks last evening. The recent swell emanated mainly out of the Monongahela, as the Allegheny, from all that we can learn, rose but very slightly at its headquarters. The weather yesterday was cool and pleasant.

The arrivals include the Leni Leoti and Bay from Parkersburg, and the Pine Grove from Louisville. The Bayard leaves again for Parkersburg at noon to-day.

The Ezra Porter from New Orleans, and the Robt. Moore, for Parkersburg, left on Saturday. The Porter had a very good trip, though she was compelled to fill out with Cincinnati and Louisville freights, being unable to get a full cargo for New Orleans.

The following boats were in port yesterday: Emma Graham, Arabian, Glasgow, Kate Robinson, Minnie, Idaho, Pulaski, Columbia, Pine Grove, Argosy, Leni Leoti, Bertha, America, and Bayard.

A large number of tow boats got off yesterday, with tows for and others will do doubtless get off to-day. Some of the boats were delayed, their tows not being ready.

The Argosy, Capt. Vanvergrift, will leave this evening for Cincinnati and Louisville, as will also the Bertha, Capt. Piersel for Saint Louis. These are both good boats and are in charge of careful and experienced officers.

The American, Capt. Golding, is announced for New Orleans, and the Columbia, Capt. D. W. Marratta, will follow the Argosy for Cincinnati and Louisville.

The Memphis Avalanche, of the 10th, says: The Armadillo passed up yesterday morning from New Orleans, bound for Cincinnati. She had yellow fever on board among the crew and passengers, and put off two cases here. The Captain disinfected the boat here, and left for Cincinnati.

At St. Louis the owners of the railroad line of steamboats, an opposition line of thirteen boats, together with the Atlantic and Mississippi Steamship Company, and the Towboat Company, have made a common schedule of freights on the Mississippi river, to avoid the business of cutting into each other. Flour to New Orleans is 50 cts a barrel, and other freights in proportion. Before the arrangement boats were carrying flour at 25c a barrel.

The Gray and Rob Roy arrived at Cincinnati on Friday last, and the Quickstep got there the same day for Pittsburgh. We clip the following items from the Cincinnati Commercial of Saturday:

Capt. Farley, of the Cottage, reports hard rains up the Kanawha on Tuesday, day and night, with thirty-three inches in the channel, and prospects for another rise.....The Delaware, from St. Louis has two barges of pig metal in tow for Pittsburgh. She discharged two hundred tons of grain here, and reshipped 500 sacks of corn for Patriot on the Blue Wing. Capt. Ray Barton left for Pittsburgh by land on Tuesday, to attend the funeral of his deceased brother, Capt. T. M. Barton. Capt. Charlie Barton commands the Delaware to Pittsburgh.....The Rob Roy reshipped 1,000 sacks of corn from Cincinnati to St. Louis freight on the Buckford.....Capt. Walker raised steam on his New "Dean Line" packet Sam P. Hale yesterday afternoon. She went the length of the steamboat landing, No. 2 up to Fulton, and then went down the river as far as Sedamville. She makes abundant steam with ease, and made the run from Frank Gray's Villa to the Kentucky Bridge, five miles, in less than thirty minutes, notwithstanding she was flying light with very little dap. She is now loading for Memphis.....Capt. James Goodi's new tow boat, Sam Parker, the pioneer in the Cincinnati and New Orleans Packet Line of towboats is now being completed at the foot of Ludlow street, and will be ready for business in a few days.....The R. C. Gray brought a full cargo from Pittsburgh. She reships 50 tons for Louisville, Central, Patriot, Big Wilderness, 7,500 bushels for Orleans, and three casks earthen ware for St. Louis.

The Quickstep, Nora and Delaware were advertised to leave Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Friday. Capt. H. H. Devinney has again assumed command of the Nora. The Lenora No. 2 goes on the Louisville route from St. Louis to Pittsburgh on Thursday, with a full cargo of metal, and the Starlight and Armenia passed Jeffersonville the same day.

Says the Louisville Democrat, of Thursday: The U. S. survey boat, otherwise known as Greenback, passed up yesterday on the hunt of some of the Wheeling steel drum boats, and we believe has now gone to Smokestown—Pittsburgh.

The Argonaut left St. Louis for Pittsburgh on Thursday last. We glean the following items from the St. Louis Democrat, of Friday:

We learn on good authority that Capt. Donaldson, the projector of the magnificent steamer Grand Republic, has sold her and gave Pittsburgh and settle in St. Louis with his family. Men of his energy and enterprising habits are always welcome to St. Louis. The Dunleith & Dubuque will shortly build a steamer of 1,000 tons burthen.

The grain blockade has fairly commenced, there being no cars to move it eastward, not enough to ship by the river. There is now in bad weather at Dunleith 60,000 bushels, a portion of which must remain there until shipments are made. The Lotus from Pittsburgh has gone after coal to the Illinois river, with very favorable notices from New Orleans papers.

TELEGRAMS.

Prizes of the Columbia Typographical Union—Arrest of Senators Sumner—Shoeless in Washington—Pressure for Exhibit of the Treasury Department.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 14.—The Columbia Typographical society at their meeting last night adopted an amendment to their scale of prices as follows: Hereafter time and pressmen employed by the week shall receive not less than twenty-four dollars per week, eight hours to constitute a day's work, an hour lot to March 31st, and ten hours to constitute a day's work from April 1st to September 30st inclusive. For extra work, fifty cents per hour, and after midnight and Sundays double rates per hour. Time work in all offices excepting those of the morning papers which has heretofore been forty-five cents per hour, is increased to fifty cents. A committee was appointed to inform the employers of this city that the new scale will go into effect to-morrow.

The Bookbinders' Association also held a meeting and passed a law to work from one hour after sunrise to sunset from October 1st to March 1st.

It is stated that several days ago a detachment of the police arrested a party of five men, whose only visible means of support was four large sums of money with them. Over $108,000 in gold and silver coin were found on their persons, besides numerous checks of gold and silver, and gold and silver ore. They satisfied the officers that they had been mining in Montana since 1859; that on their way here they stopped and left their persons principal interest, and that they were now en route for their homes in the State of Georgia. They were accordingly dismissed from custody.

It appears from the monthly report of the Board of Health that there has been thus far only one death from Asiatic cholera in this city.

A counterfeit of the new five cent coin is in circulation. It may be distinguished from the genuine by the softness of the metal.

Secretary Fessenden is declaining, report of the secretary of the Treasury on the finances was published recently without his consent. He has taken measures with a view to prevent similar premature exhibits.
